

The Bee

FREE PUBLISHING COMPANY.
(Incorporated)

Address: 1000 Broadway, New York, N.Y.

Subscription Rates:

One Year, $1.00
Six Months, $0.60
Three Months, $0.35

Single Copies, 10 Cents

Advertisements: 10 Cents per line per week

THE REACTION ON SILVER.

There are some signs that the free silver delusion in the West has passed high tide and ebbed. It has been running strongly because it was not boldly and earnestly combated. It could not stand before a vigorous, systematic and intelligent resistance it has begun to encounter.

The action of the National Republican Club of Chicago in declaring against free coinage will have a strong influence in the Democratic party of Illinois. The organization of the Honest Money League of Chicago is another potent movement in the same direction. The defeat of free coinage in the Democratic State Committee of Iowa is still another sign. And the coming sound money convention at Memphis will help to stem the tide in the South.

The Republicans of the West have fallen under the spell of the silver delusion to some extent, but to no such extent as the Democrats of that section. There is need of facing the false tendency on the Republican side, but the need is far greater on the Democratic side. For this reason the organized effort among sound Democratic leaders and influences to fight the dangerous heresy deserves all the more commendation and encouragement.

It will help to check its growth in the future. With all the facts in our hands, President Cleveland has done a public service in sounding the battle cry against free coinage and, without carping at the terms of his letter, the force which he has put into the Democratic struggle to save that party from being swallowed by the silver extremists should be freely and frankly recognized.

It may not succeed, but it is right and courageous and deserves to succeed. The Democratic party of the West and South is so tainted with false ideas on this subject that nothing short of a determined effort by the Administration can rescue it, and it is not certain that even that can do it. But none the less it must be followed with the best wishes of right-minded Republicans and less than right-minded Democrats. For our own part we have unbounded faith that the Republican party of the country will not be misled into a false position on this subject. We believe that it will stand for sound money and that if the Democratic party should yield to the silver craze it would make Republican triumph in the Presidential contest doubly sure. But at the same time it would be a misfortune if either of the two great parties should succumb to the monstrous wrong of a debased and dishonest currency which strikes at the vitals of public honor and general prosperity, and we regard with unalloyed gratification every effort in the Democratic party to save it from this danger.

The aggressive campaign of General Palmer and Mr. Morrison to defeat the attempted snip judgment in Illinois is for the character, and it ought to win. The money is advanced by Mr. McCleary and the Louisville "Courier-Journal" of the challenge of Senator Black for a battle over the free silver issue shows that Kentucky is not to be surrendered without a strong and hopeful struggle. It is the hope of Colonel McClure that high public service during his recent tour through the South in his earnest, forceful and impressive admonitions, which spoken in congressional forums, reached over several States, against the wrong and folly of tolerating a debased currency that would be most destructive to their own interests and prosperity. Colonel McClure could appeal to them as an undoubted and unimpeachable friend of the South. For many years, through all the struggles of the able and faithful champion of that section, and his sympathy with its aspirations and his devotion to its welfare could not be challenged. When, therefore, he summoned the Southern people not to yield to a dishonest monetary policy which would be disastrous to their credit and enterprise, he spoke with a friendship and authority which they ought to heed.

These various demonstrations in the Democratic ranks indicate a vigorous effort to win the silver war, but it will fall to the party which has the broad light before the country. It is doomed to inevitable defeat.—Philadelphia Press.

Job Work neatly executed at this office. Estimates furnished on application. Send in your orders at once.

ATTENTION REPUBLICANS.

Pursuant to a call, the Hopkins County Republican Committee met in Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895, and by votes thereof a mass convention of the Republicans of Hopkins County, Ky., is called to meet at Madisonville, Ky., May 1, 1895, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to be held at Louisville, Ky., June 5, 1895, for the transaction of such other business as may come before it. In the State Convention, Hopkins County will be entitled to seven delegates, and these delegates will be selected so that each congressional district will be represented in proportion to the Republican vote at the last Presidential election which will be as follows:

Curtall, 2; Court House, 5; Hanson, 1; Earlington, 3; Nobo, 3; and Clinton, 3.

In case any district can not be represented by a resident thereof who will attend the State Convention, then such district may be represented by delegates selected out of such district; the purpose being to have Hopkins County fully represented at the State Convention.

J. B. HARVEY, Chairman
Hopkins Co. Rep. Com.
Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895.

Last Monday morning, a bundle was carried to our office, all charged prepaid, which we thought was a present that some generous friend had presented us for our sanctum. We opened it and discovered it was a sixteen page edition of the New Haven Echo. We lugged it to our office and, after spreading it out, we took off our shoes and roamed about over it so completely fascinated that dinner time came and went unheeded. To say that it was a James Dandy could only be using very mild language. Typographical style is perfect, and in point of merit it ranked next to new greenbacks, being filled with "pictures" and descriptive history of all the leading citizens, churches, schools and enterprises of New Haven. If the good people of Nelson county do not arise in self defense, and sit violently down upon Editor Barry, he will soon be running a daily paper of the same size, and to no such extent as the Democrats of that section. There is need of facing the false tendency on the Republican side, but the need is far greater on the Democratic side. For this reason the organized effort among sound Democratic leaders and influences to fight the dangerous heresy deserves all the more commendation and encouragement.

It will help to check its growth in the future. With all the facts in our hands, President Cleveland has done a public service in sounding the battle cry against free coinage and, without carping at the terms of his letter, the force which he has put into the Democratic struggle to save that party from being swallowed by the silver extremists should be freely and frankly recognized.

It may not succeed, but it is right and courageous and deserves to succeed. The Democratic party of the West and South is so tainted with false ideas on this subject that nothing short of a determined effort by the Administration can rescue it, and it is not certain that even that can do it. But none the less it must be followed with the best wishes of right-minded Republicans and less than right-minded Democrats. For our own part we have unbounded faith that the Republican party of the country will not be misled into a false position on this subject. We believe that it will stand for sound money and that if the Democratic party should yield to the silver craze it would make Republican triumph in the Presidential contest doubly sure. But at the same time it would be a misfortune if either of the two great parties should succumb to the monstrous wrong of a debased and dishonest currency which strikes at the vitals of public honor and general prosperity, and we regard with unalloyed gratification every effort in the Democratic party to save it from this danger.

The aggressive campaign of General Palmer and Mr. Morrison to defeat the attempted snip judgment in Illinois is for the character, and it ought to win. The money is advanced by Mr. McCleary and the Louisville "Courier-Journal" of the challenge of Senator Black for a battle over the free silver issue shows that Kentucky is not to be surrendered without a strong and hopeful struggle. It is the hope of Colonel McClure that high public service during his recent tour through the South in his earnest, forceful and impressive admonitions, which spoken in congressional forums, reached over several States, against the wrong and folly of tolerating a debased currency that would be most destructive to their own interests and prosperity. Colonel McClure could appeal to them as an undoubted and unimpeachable friend of the South. For many years, through all the struggles of the able and faithful champion of that section, and his sympathy with its aspirations and his devotion to its welfare could not be challenged. When, therefore, he summoned the Southern people not to yield to a dishonest monetary policy which would be disastrous to their credit and enterprise, he spoke with a friendship and authority which they ought to heed.

These various demonstrations in the Democratic ranks indicate a vigorous effort to win the silver war, but it will fall to the party which has the broad light before the country. It is doomed to inevitable defeat.—Philadelphia Press.

Job Work neatly executed at this office. Estimates furnished on application. Send in your orders at once.

ATTENTION REPUBLICANS.

Pursuant to a call, the Hopkins County Republican Committee met in Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895, and by votes thereof a mass convention of the Republicans of Hopkins County, Ky., is called to meet at Madisonville, Ky., May 1, 1895, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to be held at Louisville, Ky., June 5, 1895, for the transaction of such other business as may come before it. In the State Convention, Hopkins County will be entitled to seven delegates, and these delegates will be selected so that each congressional district will be represented in proportion to the Republican vote at the last Presidential election which will be as follows:

Curtall, 2; Court House, 5; Hanson, 1; Earlington, 3; Nobo, 3; and Clinton, 3.

In case any district can not be represented by a resident thereof who will attend the State Convention, then such district may be represented by delegates selected out of such district; the purpose being to have Hopkins County fully represented at the State Convention.

J. B. HARVEY, Chairman
Hopkins Co. Rep. Com.
Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895.

Last Monday morning, a bundle was carried to our office, all charged prepaid, which we thought was a present that some generous friend had presented us for our sanctum. We opened it and discovered it was a sixteen page edition of the New Haven Echo. We lugged it to our office and, after spreading it out, we took off our shoes and roamed about over it so completely fascinated that dinner time came and went unheeded. To say that it was a James Dandy could only be using very mild language. Typographical style is perfect, and in point of merit it ranked next to new greenbacks, being filled with "pictures" and descriptive history of all the leading citizens, churches, schools and enterprises of New Haven. If the good people of Nelson county do not arise in self defense, and sit violently down upon Editor Barry, he will soon be running a daily paper of the same size, and to no such extent as the Democrats of that section. There is need of facing the false tendency on the Republican side, but the need is far greater on the Democratic side. For this reason the organized effort among sound Democratic leaders and influences to fight the dangerous heresy deserves all the more commendation and encouragement.

It will help to check its growth in the future. With all the facts in our hands, President Cleveland has done a public service in sounding the battle cry against free coinage and, without carping at the terms of his letter, the force which he has put into the Democratic struggle to save that party from being swallowed by the silver extremists should be freely and frankly recognized.

It may not succeed, but it is right and courageous and deserves to succeed. The Democratic party of the West and South is so tainted with false ideas on this subject that nothing short of a determined effort by the Administration can rescue it, and it is not certain that even that can do it. But none the less it must be followed with the best wishes of right-minded Republicans and less than right-minded Democrats. For our own part we have unbounded faith that the Republican party of the country will not be misled into a false position on this subject. We believe that it will stand for sound money and that if the Democratic party should yield to the silver craze it would make Republican triumph in the Presidential contest doubly sure. But at the same time it would be a misfortune if either of the two great parties should succumb to the monstrous wrong of a debased and dishonest currency which strikes at the vitals of public honor and general prosperity, and we regard with unalloyed gratification every effort in the Democratic party to save it from this danger.

The aggressive campaign of General Palmer and Mr. Morrison to defeat the attempted snip judgment in Illinois is for the character, and it ought to win. The money is advanced by Mr. McCleary and the Louisville "Courier-Journal" of the challenge of Senator Black for a battle over the free silver issue shows that Kentucky is not to be surrendered without a strong and hopeful struggle. It is the hope of Colonel McClure that high public service during his recent tour through the South in his earnest, forceful and impressive admonitions, which spoken in congressional forums, reached over several States, against the wrong and folly of tolerating a debased currency that would be most destructive to their own interests and prosperity. Colonel McClure could appeal to them as an undoubted and unimpeachable friend of the South. For many years, through all the struggles of the able and faithful champion of that section, and his sympathy with its aspirations and his devotion to its welfare could not be challenged. When, therefore, he summoned the Southern people not to yield to a dishonest monetary policy which would be disastrous to their credit and enterprise, he spoke with a friendship and authority which they ought to heed.

These various demonstrations in the Democratic ranks indicate a vigorous effort to win the silver war, but it will fall to the party which has the broad light before the country. It is doomed to inevitable defeat.—Philadelphia Press.

Job Work neatly executed at this office. Estimates furnished on application. Send in your orders at once.

ATTENTION REPUBLICANS.

Pursuant to a call, the Hopkins County Republican Committee met in Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895, and by votes thereof a mass convention of the Republicans of Hopkins County, Ky., is called to meet at Madisonville, Ky., May 1, 1895, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to be held at Louisville, Ky., June 5, 1895, for the transaction of such other business as may come before it. In the State Convention, Hopkins County will be entitled to seven delegates, and these delegates will be selected so that each congressional district will be represented in proportion to the Republican vote at the last Presidential election which will be as follows:

Curtall, 2; Court House, 5; Hanson, 1; Earlington, 3; Nobo, 3; and Clinton, 3.

In case any district can not be represented by a resident thereof who will attend the State Convention, then such district may be represented by delegates selected out of such district; the purpose being to have Hopkins County fully represented at the State Convention.

J. B. HARVEY, Chairman
Hopkins Co. Rep. Com.
Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895.

Last Monday morning, a bundle was carried to our office, all charged prepaid, which we thought was a present that some generous friend had presented us for our sanctum. We opened it and discovered it was a sixteen page edition of the New Haven Echo. We lugged it to our office and, after spreading it out, we took off our shoes and roamed about over it so completely fascinated that dinner time came and went unheeded. To say that it was a James Dandy could only be using very mild language. Typographical style is perfect, and in point of merit it ranked next to new greenbacks, being filled with "pictures" and descriptive history of all the leading citizens, churches, schools and enterprises of New Haven. If the good people of Nelson county do not arise in self defense, and sit violently down upon Editor Barry, he will soon be running a daily paper of the same size, and to no such extent as the Democrats of that section. There is need of facing the false tendency on the Republican side, but the need is far greater on the Democratic side. For this reason the organized effort among sound Democratic leaders and influences to fight the dangerous heresy deserves all the more commendation and encouragement.

It will help to check its growth in the future. With all the facts in our hands, President Cleveland has done a public service in sounding the battle cry against free coinage and, without carping at the terms of his letter, the force which he has put into the Democratic struggle to save that party from being swallowed by the silver extremists should be freely and frankly recognized.

The aggressive campaign of General Palmer and Mr. Morrison to defeat the attempted snip judgment in Illinois is for the character, and it ought to win. The money is advanced by Mr. McCleary and the Louisville "Courier-Journal" of the challenge of Senator Black for a battle over the free silver issue shows that Kentucky is not to be surrendered without a strong and hopeful struggle. It is the hope of Colonel McClure that high public service during his recent tour through the South in his earnest, forceful and impressive admonitions, which spoken in congressional forums, reached over several States, against the wrong and folly of tolerating a debased currency that would be most destructive to their own interests and prosperity. Colonel McClure could appeal to them as an undoubted and unimpeachable friend of the South. For many years, through all the struggles of the able and faithful champion of that section, and his sympathy with its aspirations and his devotion to its welfare could not be challenged. When, therefore, he summoned the Southern people not to yield to a dishonest monetary policy which would be disastrous to their credit and enterprise, he spoke with a friendship and authority which they ought to heed.

These various demonstrations in the Democratic ranks indicate a vigorous effort to win the silver war, but it will fall to the party which has the broad light before the country. It is doomed to inevitable defeat.—Philadelphia Press.

Job Work neatly executed at this office. Estimates furnished on application. Send in your orders at once.

It may not succeed, but it is right and courageous and deserves to succeed. The Democratic party of the West and South is so tainted with false ideas on this subject that nothing short of a determined effort by the Administration can rescue it, and it is not certain that even that can do it. But none the less it must be followed with the best wishes of right-minded Republicans and less than right-minded Democrats. For our own part we have unbounded faith that the Republican party of the country will not be misled into a false position on this subject. We believe that it will stand for sound money and that if the Democratic party should yield to the silver craze it would make Republican triumph in the Presidential contest doubly sure. But at the same time it would be a misfortune if either of the two great parties should succumb to the monstrous wrong of a debased and dishonest currency which strikes at the vitals of public honor and general prosperity, and we regard with unalloyed gratification every effort in the Democratic party to save it from this danger.

The aggressive campaign of General Palmer and Mr. Morrison to defeat the attempted snip judgment in Illinois is for the character, and it ought to win. The money is advanced by Mr. McCleary and the Louisville "Courier-Journal" of the challenge of Senator Black for a battle over the free silver issue shows that Kentucky is not to be surrendered without a strong and hopeful struggle. It is the hope of Colonel McClure that high public service during his recent tour through the South in his earnest, forceful and impressive admonitions, which spoken in congressional forums, reached over several States, against the wrong and folly of tolerating a debased currency that would be most destructive to their own interests and prosperity. Colonel McClure could appeal to them as an undoubted and unimpeachable friend of the South. For many years, through all the struggles of the able and faithful champion of that section, and his sympathy with its aspirations and his devotion to its welfare could not be challenged. When, therefore, he summoned the Southern people not to yield to a dishonest monetary policy which would be disastrous to their credit and enterprise, he spoke with a friendship and authority which they ought to heed.

These various demonstrations in the Democratic ranks indicate a vigorous effort to win the silver war, but it will fall to the party which has the broad light before the country. It is doomed to inevitable defeat.—Philadelphia Press.

Job Work neatly executed at this office. Estimates furnished on application. Send in your orders at once.

ATTENTION REPUBLICANS.

Pursuant to a call, the Hopkins County Republican Committee met in Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895, and by votes thereof a mass convention of the Republicans of Hopkins County, Ky., is called to meet at Madisonville, Ky., May 1, 1895, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to be held at Louisville, Ky., June 5, 1895, for the transaction of such other business as may come before it. In the State Convention, Hopkins County will be entitled to seven delegates, and these delegates will be selected so that each congressional district will be represented in proportion to the Republican vote at the last Presidential election which will be as follows:

Curtall, 2; Court House, 5; Hanson, 1; Earlington, 3; Nobo, 3; and Clinton, 3.

In case any district can not be represented by a resident thereof who will attend the State Convention, then such district may be represented by delegates selected out of such district; the purpose being to have Hopkins County fully represented at the State Convention.

J. B. HARVEY, Chairman
Hopkins Co. Rep. Com.
Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895.

Last Monday morning, a bundle was carried to our office, all charged prepaid, which we thought was a present that some generous friend had presented us for our sanctum. We opened it and discovered it was a sixteen page edition of the New Haven Echo. We lugged it to our office and, after spreading it out, we took off our shoes and roamed about over it so completely fascinated that dinner time came and went unheeded. To say that it was a James Dandy could only be using very mild language. Typographical style is perfect, and in point of merit it ranked next to new greenbacks, being filled with "pictures" and descriptive history of all the leading citizens, churches, schools and enterprises of New Haven. If the good people of Nelson county do not arise in self defense, and sit violently down upon Editor Barry, he will soon be running a daily paper of the same size, and to no such extent as the Democrats of that section. There is need of facing the false tendency on the Republican side, but the need is far greater on the Democratic side. For this reason the organized effort among sound Democratic leaders and influences to fight the dangerous heresy deserves all the more commendation and encouragement.

It will help to check its growth in the future. With all the facts in our hands, President Cleveland has done a public service in sounding the battle cry against free coinage and, without carping at the terms of his letter, the force which he has put into the Democratic struggle to save that party from being swallowed by the silver extremists should be freely and frankly recognized.

The aggressive campaign of General Palmer and Mr. Morrison to defeat the attempted snip judgment in Illinois is for the character, and it ought to win. The money is advanced by Mr. McCleary and the Louisville "Courier-Journal" of the challenge of Senator Black for a battle over the free silver issue shows that Kentucky is not to be surrendered without a strong and hopeful struggle. It is the hope of Colonel McClure that high public service during his recent tour through the South in his earnest, forceful and impressive admonitions, which spoken in congressional forums, reached over several States, against the wrong and folly of tolerating a debased currency that would be most destructive to their own interests and prosperity. Colonel McClure could appeal to them as an undoubted and unimpeachable friend of the South. For many years, through all the struggles of the able and faithful champion of that section, and his sympathy with its aspirations and his devotion to its welfare could not be challenged. When, therefore, he summoned the Southern people not to yield to a dishonest monetary policy which would be disastrous to their credit and enterprise, he spoke with a friendship and authority which they ought to heed.

These various demonstrations in the Democratic ranks indicate a vigorous effort to win the silver war, but it will fall to the party which has the broad light before the country. It is doomed to inevitable defeat.—Philadelphia Press.

Job Work neatly executed at this office. Estimates furnished on application. Send in your orders at once.

It may not succeed, but it is right and courageous and deserves to succeed. The Democratic party of the West and South is so tainted with false ideas on this subject that nothing short of a determined effort by the Administration can rescue it, and it is not certain that even that can do it. But none the less it must be followed with the best wishes of right-minded Republicans and less than right-minded Democrats. For our own part we have unbounded faith that the Republican party of the country will not be misled into a false position on this subject. We believe that it will stand for sound money and that if the Democratic party should yield to the silver craze it would make Republican triumph in the Presidential contest doubly sure. But at the same time it would be a misfortune if either of the two great parties should succumb to the monstrous wrong of a debased and dishonest currency which strikes at the vitals of public honor and general prosperity, and we regard with unalloyed gratification every effort in the Democratic party to save it from this danger.

The aggressive campaign of General Palmer and Mr. Morrison to defeat the attempted snip judgment in Illinois is for the character, and it ought to win. The money is advanced by Mr. McCleary and the Louisville "Courier-Journal" of the challenge of Senator Black for a battle over the free silver issue shows that Kentucky is not to be surrendered without a strong and hopeful struggle. It is the hope of Colonel McClure that high public service during his recent tour through the South in his earnest, forceful and impressive admonitions, which spoken in congressional forums, reached over several States, against the wrong and folly of tolerating a debased currency that would be most destructive to their own interests and prosperity. Colonel McClure could appeal to them as an undoubted and unimpeachable friend of the South. For many years, through all the struggles of the able and faithful champion of that section, and his sympathy with its aspirations and his devotion to its welfare could not be challenged. When, therefore, he summoned the Southern people not to yield to a dishonest monetary policy which would be disastrous to their credit and enterprise, he spoke with a friendship and authority which they ought to heed.

These various demonstrations in the Democratic ranks indicate a vigorous effort to win the silver war, but it will fall to the party which has the broad light before the country. It is doomed to inevitable defeat.—Philadelphia Press.

Job Work neatly executed at this office. Estimates furnished on application. Send in your orders at once.

ATTENTION REPUBLICANS.

Pursuant to a call, the Hopkins County Republican Committee met in Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895, and by votes thereof a mass convention of the Republicans of Hopkins County, Ky., is called to meet at Madisonville, Ky., May 1, 1895, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to be held at Louisville, Ky., June 5, 1895, for the transaction of such other business as may come before it. In the State Convention, Hopkins County will be entitled to seven delegates, and these delegates will be selected so that each congressional district will be represented in proportion to the Republican vote at the last Presidential election which will be as follows:

Curtall, 2; Court House, 5; Hanson, 1; Earlington, 3; Nobo, 3; and Clinton, 3.

In case any district can not be represented by a resident thereof who will attend the State Convention, then such district may be represented by delegates selected out of such district; the purpose being to have Hopkins County fully represented at the State Convention.

J. B. HARVEY, Chairman
Hopkins Co. Rep. Com.
Madisonville, Ky., April 13, 1895.

Last Monday morning, a bundle was carried to our office, all charged prepaid, which we thought was a present that some generous friend had presented us for our sanctum. We opened it and discovered it was a sixteen page edition of the New Haven Echo. We lugged it to our office and, after spreading it out, we took off our shoes and roamed about over it so completely fascinated that dinner time came and went unheeded. To say that it was a James Dandy could only be using very mild language. Typographical style is perfect, and in point of merit it ranked next to new greenbacks, being filled with "pictures" and descriptive history of all the leading citizens, churches, schools and enterprises of New Haven. If the good people of Nelson county do not arise in self defense, and sit violently down upon Editor Barry, he will soon be running a daily paper of the same size, and to no such extent as the Democrats of that section. There is need of facing the false tendency on the Republican side, but the need is far greater on the Democratic side. For this reason the organized effort among sound Democratic leaders and influences to fight the dangerous heresy deserves all the more commendation and encouragement.

It will help to check its growth in the future. With all the facts in our hands, President Cleveland has done a public service in sounding the battle cry against free coinage and, without carping at the terms of his letter, the force which he has put into the Democratic struggle to save that party from being swallowed by the silver extremists should be freely and frankly recognized.

The aggressive campaign of General Palmer and Mr. Morrison to defeat the attempted snip judgment in Illinois is for the character, and it ought to win. The money is advanced by Mr. McCleary and the Louisville "Courier-Journal" of the challenge of Senator Black for a battle over the free silver issue shows that Kentucky is not to be surrendered without a strong and hopeful struggle. It is the hope of Colonel McClure that high public service during his recent tour through the South in his earnest, forceful and impressive admonitions, which spoken in congressional forums, reached over several States, against the wrong and folly of tolerating a debased currency that would be most destructive to their own interests and prosperity. Colonel McClure could appeal to them as an undoubted and unimpeachable friend of the South. For many years, through all the struggles of the able and faithful champion of that section, and his sympathy with its aspirations and his devotion to its welfare could not be challenged. When, therefore, he summoned the Southern people not to yield to a dishonest monetary policy which would be disastrous to their credit and enterprise, he spoke with a friendship and authority which they ought to heed.

These various demonstrations in the Democratic ranks indicate a vigorous effort to win the silver war, but it will fall to the party which has the broad light before the country. It is doomed to inevitable defeat.—Philadelphia Press.

Job Work neatly executed at this office. Estimates furnished on application. Send in your orders at once.

Ripans Tabules.

Take RIPANS TABULES
Take RIPANS TABULES
Take RIPANS TABULES
Take RIPANS TABULES

Ripans Tabules not gently but promptly upon the liver, stomach and intestines, cleanse the system effectually; cure dyspepsia, habitual constipation, offensive breath and headache. One Tabule taken at the first indication of indigestion, biliousness, dizziness, distress after eating or depression of spirits, will surely and quickly remove the whole difficulty.

Ripans Tabules are prepared from a prescription widely used by the best physicians, and are presented in the form most approved by modern science.

If given a fair trial Ripans Tabules are an infallible cure they contain nothing injurious and are an economical remedy.

One gives relief.

A quarter gross box will be sent, postage paid, on receipt of 75 cents by the wholesale and retail agents.

JOHN D. PARK & SONS CO., Cincinnati, Ohio.
MEYER BROTHERS DRUG CO., St. Louis, Mo.
MOFFITT-WEST DRUG CO., St. Louis, Mo.

Local Druggists everywhere will supply the Tabules if requested to do so.

They are Easy to Take, Quick to Act and Save many a Doctor's Bill.

SAMPLED FREE ON APPLICATION TO THE RIPANS CHEMICAL CO., NEW YORK CITY.

Walter McGary,
EARLINGTON, KENTUCKY,
LIVERY AND FEED STABLES.

SPLV DID LINE OF VEHICLES.
GOOD STOCK.
ELEGANT TURNOUTS

HAULING OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. HEARSE FURNISHED ON SHORT NOTICE.
Charges Reasonable. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3 SHOE

THIS IS THE BEST $3. SHOE IN THE WORLD.

For Sale by JNO. M. VICTORY & CO., Earlrlington, Ky.

The ST. BERNARD DRUG STORE
EARLINGTON, KENTUCKY,
DRUGGISTS

Patent Medicines and Perfumery
DRUGGISTS' FANCY AND TOILET ARTICLES.
Hair, Tooth, and Paint Brushes,
Paints and Oils

Ready Mixed Paints, all colors, in small cans.

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS CAREFULLY COMPOUNDED

EDUCATE

TWO SEPARATE SCHOOLS UNDER ONE MANAGEMENT.

BOWLING GREEN BUSINESS COLLEGE. SOUTHERN NORMAL SCHOOL.

ESTABLISHED IN 1878.

BOWLING GREEN BUSINESS COLLEGE, SOUTHERN NORMAL SCHOOL.

The Great Training School for the South. Graduates of this school are employed in all the leading business houses of the South. For catalogue, send for catalogue.

Address: BOWLING GREEN, Ky.

LIKE DAVIS.
LIVERY STABLE.

"Hitch your Wagon to a Star"

As Emerson said, "It is, don't have any bicycle but the best one made in the world."

The new models of these famous bicycles are now on exhibition.

Many improvements—lighter, stronger, more beautiful than ever.

Columbia Bicycles, $100

Best of lower priced machines are Hartbees, 800 boys' and girls' Hartbees, 600.

MOORE & ARNOLD, ACTS.
EARLINGTON, KY.

THE BEE

THE BEE

THE BEE

THE BEE

THE BEE

THE BEE

THE BEE

THE BEE

